

Robert E. Andrews

Robert E. Andrews currently serves as the CEO of the Health Transformation Alliance (HTA).

As CEO of the HTA, Andrews oversees the strategic direction of approximately 60+ major corporations that have come together in an alliance to do one thing: fix our broken healthcare system. Formed by four founding members in September 2015, the HTA member companies collectively are responsible for more than 8 million employees, dependents, and retirees with an annual healthcare spend of $30+ billion. Through Andrews' leadership, the HTA has launched value-driven solutions specifically designed to improve patient care and economic value through world-class data and analytics, pathbreaking pharmaceutical solutions, high-quality medical networks, and robust consumer engagement initiatives. To date, the cooperative has saved its member companies well over $2 billion in healthcare costs. Andrew's leadership has been equally important in the HTA developing programs addressing racial and ethnic disparities in health care, mental health issues, and safe return-to-work programs following the pandemic.

Andrews led the Government Affairs practice at Dilworth Paxson law firm for two years before joining the HTA.

Prior to private practice, Andrews served as a Member of the United States House of Representatives for nearly 24 years. Upon his departure from Congress, President Barack Obama praised Andrews' service as "an original author of the Affordable Care Act...and a vital partner in its passage and implementation," and cited his "tenacity and skill" in representing the people of New Jersey.

Andrews is married to Camille Spinello Andrews, a former Associate Dean at Rutgers Law School and former Dilworth partner, and they have two daughters, Jacquelyn and Josie.

During his time in the U.S. House, Andrews served in the following capacities:

- Member of the House of Democratic Leadership as Co-Chairman of the Steering Policy Committee
- Senior Democratic Member and former Chairman of the Health, Employment, Labor and Pensions (HELP) Subcommittee of the House Committee on Education and the Workforce
- Senior member of the House Armed Services Committee, with responsibility for all national defense matters
- Senior Democratic member and the former Chairman of the Defense Committee Panel on Defense Procurement Reform
- Senior Democratic member and former Chairman of the Defense Committee Panel on Audit of the Pentagon
- Participant, White House Summit on Health Care Reforms (2009 and 2010)
- One of the Original Authors of the Affordable Care Act
- One of the original authors of the Defense Procurement Reform Law (2009)

Andrews holds the record for the highest number of votes ever received by a U.S. House candidate in the history of the state of New Jersey.

Andrews' professional and community activities include his time as former Director of Camden County Board of Chosen Freeholders.

Andrews has been a keynote speaker at charitable, educational and governmental events for 30 years, including Bucknell University commencement, Rutgers Law School commencement, and Rutgers Camden commencement. He is a frequent guest on CNN, Fox News, MSNBC, and CNBC.

Education:

J.D., magna cum laude, Cornell Law School, 1982 • Cornell Law Review • Order of the Coif

B.A., summa cum laude with honors, Bucknell University, 1979 • Phi Beta Kappa